ALL OFFICIALS PRAISE SCHOOL*Tricks and Treaters
Join Worthy Cause

"It was the best Halloween yet." That was the remark heard around Mokena following Halloween last week end. Both young and old are happy that it was a "constructive" instead of a "destructive" Halloween, thanks to community organizations, churches, schools, and UNICEF.

This was the first time that the Tricks and Treaters, called on homes and instead of soliciting treats for themselves, they carried small empty milk containers, and solicited funds for Children of the World.

This has been a wonderful experience for our boys and girls, for they now have a real share in the welfare and lives of the needy children around the world.

The children of St. Mary's school collected in this way, $32.49 and those of the public school $95, making a total of $127.49. Each school will send the amount collected to the American Committee of the UNICEF at UN headquarters in Washington, D.C. This is a voluntary organization and is not supported by the UN.

This money so collected, added to those from other countries, will bring thousands of children a glass of milk, or treatment to prevent serious illness. Our children will receive the gratitude of many needy children, whom we, as a Mokena Community have helped to safeguard from hunger and disease.

PTA Name Chairmen Sees Braille Items

The Mokena P.T.A. met Oct. 27 and heard Attorney Stewart Kroesch of Joliet, Democratic candidate for Probate Judge, explain the various braille items which he had brought with him.

Among the interesting implements used by the blind, of whom Mr. Kroesch is one, was a braille typewriter, a ruler and a stick for writing braille. He pointed out that braille actually consists of six letters which are put into varied and many combinations which comprise the braille writings. As an example of how voluminous the system the audience was told that a regular monthly issue of Reader's Digest often is made up into as many as four volumes of braille writing.

"Penny," the German Shepherd dog which accompanies the attorney everywhere, is his second such seeing-eye dog, and is six years old. She evoked much interest at the meeting. Mr. Kroesch, who was escorted by his wife, told of the experiences of the blind, citing many of his own.

Chairmen for the following committees were named at the meeting: Membership, Mrs. Thomas Powers; Finance, Fred Lehman; Hospitality, Mrs. Ralph Howell; Publicity, Mrs. Raymond Westlund; Representative to the PTA council, Mrs. Russell Anderson. Mrs. Norvall Robinson was appointed in charge of the Christmas party and preparation of Yuletide treats.

This drive is on until Nov. 20, and they earnestly request all citizens, farmers or those living in the village, to gather the scrap iron, batteries, etc. that has accumulated on their property and bring it to the village and dump it on the scrap pile.

The scrap pile is located on Kansas street across from the Sangmeister Electric store. Those who are unable to bring their scrap may call Frankfort 2292 and it will then be picked up.

This scrap iron, becomes more useless each day because it gathers rust but it would be a big asset in this drive to help the community and the band which would in turn keep the band marching a long to bigger achievements.

BUDGETS ARE PRESENTED AT VILLAGE PARK BOARD MEET*U.S. Census Bureau
Asks Cooperation
Of All Farmers

America's more than 5 million farmers are being asked to cooperate with the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, in the 1954 Census of Agriculture which is now under way. This census is the 16th in a series of nationwide farm censuses since the first farm census in 1840, over 100 years ago.

In most States, copies of the census questionnaire are being mailed to farm operators in advance of the enumeration which began early in October and will continue into December. The starting date for the census has been set for the close of the normal crop harvesting season in each area. Questionnaires to be used in different areas have been designed to cover the crops commonly produced in these areas, while a number of questions common to all farms will be included in each variation of the questionnaire. In seven Southern States where the shaver-crop system is followed, the questionnaires will be delivered in person by the enumerators to assure the consolidation of reports for multiple-unit farms.

The mail questionnaire used in most of the states is accompanied by a letter from Director Robert W. Burgess of the Bureau of the Census. This letter requests each individual farm operator to fill in the answers and have the completed questionnaire ready for the census enumerator when he calls at the farm a few days later. The enumerator will assist the farmer in filling out the form, if he requires assistance.

The Census questionnaire is designed to collect information about the number and size of farms, tenure, acreage of land in various uses, crops harvested, livestock inventory and production, expenditures for selected items (labor hire, machine hire, feed, fertilizers and lime, gasoline and other petroleum fuels and oil), inventory of selected facilities and equipment (television, food freezer, piped running water, tractor, harvesting machines, automobile, truck, etc.) irrigation conservation practices, farm value, mortgage debt and cash rent. Regional variations of the questionnaire will be used so that inquiries about crops, for instance, will be limited in each area to the crops common in that area. On an average, each farmer will be asked about 100 questions, many of which can be answered by checking "yes" or "no."

Warren Manker was asked by President Rueckert to aid several communities, in a consulting capacity.

The board requests that no one drive into the park during the fall and winter, as it is being seeded and graded, and will be soft, leaving tracks.

CARD PARTY

This Friday night, Nov. 8 the VFW will sponsor a card party in their hall in Mokena starting at 8:30. Serving on the committee are Maude Larson, Olive Williams, Gladys Lord, Dorothy Bierenger and Edelaide Goddard.

TO ORGANIZE CROP IN THIS AREA

The Crop committee of Will county will hold an organization meeting, Friday evening, Nov. 5 in the basement of St. John's church in Mokena at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Ernest Gander, of the North Peotone church, chairman of the committee will show movies on the need of crop this year. The north half of Frankfort and Homer townships will be formed into one unit for this purpose.

The request of Scott Perry to rezone Front street from Division street east to Midland ave., on the south side of Front street will come before the zoning board when it meets Dec. 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the village hall. Anyone interested in this zoning should attend at this time.

A petition was presented to the board, signed by 23 property owners in Mineral Springs subdivision, seeking relief from storm waters. During the recent heavy rain storm, their basements were flooded. The outlet on LaPorte road is sufficient to handle normal rains only. President Scarth stated he will get advice from a drainage engineer for the best solution for this problem.

The board plans to install culverts on Third street near the school and on Parker street.

The 14 delinquent water users will be served with a notice that their current water bills must be paid within 10 days, and if not, the water will be shut off at a cost of one dollar to the user, and when it will be turned on again, another dollar will be charged for that service.

The board will take steps at once to advertise for bids to wreck the Stellwagon building on Front street.

"The Form Divine" a gay, three-act comedy will be presented by the Mokena Village Players Friday and Saturday evening, Nov. 5 and 6, in the Mokena school auditorium. This will be the eighth production of the Village Players, which started as a group in 1951, with Mrs. Kenneth Sherwood as the leader and director of the first play.

"Lucille", played by Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, achieves the form divine to please her young daughter, played by Sharon Owens, and to impress Hoppy's boyfriend, Jimmy, played by Billy Noble.

The play has a cast of 17, all of whom have been working hard for a long time to make it the very best production of the Village Players up to this time. Mrs. James Surovick is the director.

Everybody in Mokena and surrounding area is invited to see "The Form Divine" on either of the two evenings, and it is hoped that the attendance will reach a new high.

The Mokena village park board met Monday evening at the home of Henry Clark. Principal business was the discussion of budgets as presented at the last Civic Association meeting. The budgets, listed below, were accepted.

Taxes and Insurance,
1953 and 1954	$ 186.00
Grading	2000.00
Seeding and Fertilizer	487.00
Fences	575.00
Picnic Tables	150.00
Stoves or Fireplaces	90.00
Sanitary Facilities	35.00
Water Installation	1045.00
Baseball Backstops	250.00
Administrative Costs	25.00
Miscellaneous	220.00
TOTAL	$5063.00

Of this total, $3,000 came from the Civic Association, from the sale of the lots they formerly owned on the north end of the village.

Other money, in the amount of about $1600, has been turned over to the board from Home-coming committees, and the park board had some money left in the treasury from last year.

Present at the meeting were Dean Rueckert, Harley Mann, Clarence Lauffer, Ray Hoohehan, Henry Clark, Florence Neithammer, Vivian Shoop, Charles Swanberg, and Jane Bills.

The park board proceeded to set up policies. There will be more on this at the next meeting, scheduled for December 6.

Clarence Lauffer was appointed to look into the matter of getting picnic tables made. However, the backstops cannot be built until spring, as they would interfere with fall seeding. Messrs. Lauffer, Swanberg and Rueckert are on the committee to see about fences being built, starting on the south end.

Mrs. Neithammer heads the committee to get prices on stoves and fireplaces, and Clark, Swanberg, and Rueckert will see that sanitary facilities are installed as soon as possible.

A committee was set up to mark picnic areas to be cleared. Chairman of this committee is Harley Mann; members, Vivian Shoop, Charles Swanberg, Florence Neithammer and Ray Hoohehan.

Warren Manker was asked by President Rueckert to aid several communities, in a consulting capacity.

The board requests that no one drive into the park during the fall and winter, as it is being seeded and graded, and will be soft, leaving tracks.

PURRING POWER

With the introduction of this new, "quiet" 25 horsepower outboard motor, pleasure boating is expected to become literally what the term implies. Absent in the new motor is the familiar noise nuisance and stinging boat vibration that has long been the bug-a-boo of outboards. The manufacturer, Johnson Motors, claims that boat occupants can chat comfortably over the motor's purr, and that lakeside residents may soon get relief from the roar that now bombards their ears.

First Conquest

Lesson for November 7, 1954

MR. ALLAN TROUT writes: "I started on the journey of life with the full intention to conquer the whole world. . . . But 32 years of retrospection have taught me, if anything, that the only world I ever had a chance to conquer was that speck of it within my own carcass." Mr. Trout may be exaggerating a bit, but he is exaggerating in the direction of the truth. The sad fact is that he is not alone, by any means. Millions of young people today do not know this simple fact; that it is no use to hope to conquer the world if you do not first conquer yourself. This is a truth not discovered first in the 20th century; ten centuries before Christ there were wise men who knew it.

Self-Control Is Not Self-Repression

Many persons do not like even the notion of self-control because the word sounds harsh, negative, joyless and austere. The word conjures up a grim-faced Puritan who feels that anything pleasant must be sinful. (The real Puritans were a pretty jolly lot, as a matter of fact.) But self-control, about which the Proverbs (and the rest of the Bible too) speak, is not mere no-saying to yourself. There is, to be sure, a NO! in self-control. But when you drive a car, you steer it because you are going somewhere. You say NO to the ditch. No to the bridge abutment. No to the passing trucks, for a reason. You want to keep going. Steering is more than not going off the pavement; it is keeping moving in the direction of where you want to go. There may be a dozen wrong directions the car might take, if you removed your hands from the wheel. What you are doing is to keep on in the one right direction. Human self-control is that sort of thing. You have more than one self, you have many. Some of them are good, some bad. The question simply is: Which one of your selves is going to take the wheel?

Weak Spots

The Proverbs point out some of the places in human make-up where character is the most likely to be weak. One of the commonly mentioned break-down spots is the tongue. Talking is so easy, and talking without thinking is so easy. As James says, it is easier to tame wild animals than to tame the tongue; indeed, no one has ever quite done it. And what trouble can be caused by one hasty, thoughtless or mean sentence! It takes time to do a mean thing, it calls for a little planning. One has time to think it over, to decide not to do it. But saying a mean thing takes no time at all, it just slips out in a flash, there is no time to think. . . . and the friendship is broken, the good day is spoiled. Another weak spot where it is hard to get control of ourselves is the emotions. The book of Proverbs mentions especially and often the emotion of anger. The angry heart and mind are back of the angry word. Before the insult that leads to the fight, there is the simmering bitter mind that thinks of the angry word. And anger leads to fights and brawls and even murder.

Why Make It Harder?

If there were no such thing as "hard liquor" or any kind of alcoholic beverages, if everybody stayed cold sober all the time, people would have a hard enough time getting control of themselves. The tongue of a preacher is hard to tame, just as much as the tongue of a truck-driver. The temper of a lady may show itself differently from the temper of a sergeant in the marines, but it's as hard to control and can do quite as much harm. But the whole problem of self-control is made more difficult by the use of liquor. The Proverbs know this, and say it. Now if you were a general, you would not dope your army with some serum that would make them stupid and sick. You would want them at their top form for every attack. So if you are interested in controlling yourself, you are being idiotic, you are working against yourself, if you make it harder by liquor-drinking. If it is easy to say the wrong thing when sober, it is twice as easy to slip up when the mind is clouded by alcohol.

LINCOLN-WAY RECEIVES—

group consisted of Lawrence Kohl, Mokena; George Boyce, Manhattan; James Dixon, Lincoln-Estates; John Oster, principal of New Lenox elementary school, and Albert A. Krusemark, Jr.

Following completion of study and plans formulated by the group, the three townships, working in unison and full cooperation, voted in the spring of 1952 to build a school, and elected the first board of education of the new district, which board still serves; they are, in addition to Mr. Krusemark, James A. Dixon, Lester Case, George Boyce, Earl Robinson, Raymond Reiter, and Lawrence Kohl.

Dr. E. Sumptous of the University of Illinois gave recommendations at that time on behalf of the office of field services, and formulated a plan for building a sound educational program. The original estimate was but $30,000 short of the actual cost of $1,670,690.66 which means that the modern, up-to-date 25 school room building, together with shop, library, gymnasium, home economics department and all last-minute innovations in school building, actually cost the citizens 64 cents a cubic foot or $14.35 a square foot.

Mr. A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent, was employed in May of 1952 and architect Childs and Smith were selected to follow the recommendations of the U. of I. Field Service office. Ground was broken on a blustery day, March 21, 1953. A contest to name the school saw Mrs. Florence Pitman, Mokena win the honor with her suggestion "Lincoln-Way" which was prompted by the fact that the location is one along which Lincoln trod. Mrs. Pitman was introduced to the cheering audience at the dedication.

Others introduced were the Citizens' committee, consisting of George Boyce and Mrs. Winsor Jones, Manhattan; Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel, Clarence; Lauffer, Mokena; Lester Brown, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. Iona Rutledge, New Lenox; Vernon Hansen, Eugene Hinspeter, Mrs. Stanley Johnson, Frankfort. Also the board members and other guests of honor, among them Mr. O. H. Breidert of the architectural firm. The latter presented the keys to the building to Earl Robinson of New Lenox, secretary of the board, and spoke in high praise of the splendid cooperation which the architect had received from everyone concerned with the building of the edifice. Mr. Robinson accepted the keys with thanks and, too, stressed the complete cooperation which was manifested down to the smallest detail in all transactions with citizens and firms alike.

A signal honor was bestowed on Lincoln-Way, when Mr. Chapman, superintendent, presented Mr. Albert Willis, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association who read a letter from the State Superintendent of public instruction's office accepting Lincoln-Way school into the association. Such acceptance is usually withheld until the close of the school year, but Lincoln-Way, under close scrutiny by school officials, has warranted acceptance early by reason of above average progress in all ways.

Speaker of the afternoon, Mr. C. C. Byerly, assistant state superintendent of public instruction congratulated the four communities for full team unity in a project for youth. His talk embraced the doctrine on which America is based, that of educating the youth of the country without stinting in the cost of such education. He emphasized, for comparative reasons, the cost of a B36 bomber, built and destined to kill, with the cost of six schools, such as Lincoln-Way, whose sole purpose is to educate young citizen to live better an dmake a better America. The salary of one good teacher, one year, equals the cost of operating a B36 bomber for just two hours. The children of today who can enjoy all the privileges accorded them have a responsibility to the school and the home, and the school must work together to fulfill the destiny parents desire for their children. The cost of such work cannot be told in dollars alone, he said, and cannot be judged by taxes only, for while school taxes are "under our very noses" and sometimes thus disturb us, other taxes, hidden from view, bring less potent results.

Mr. Byerly emphasized the responsibility of parenthood and citizenry to vote, to accept problems of government and stressed that in America no one owes anyone a living, with the exception of providing for the truly handicapped. America does owe all an opportunity, however, and the youth of America must be equipped for such opportunity. "It is just as much an honor to live for America," he said, "as it is to die for America."

In conclusion, Mr. Byerly suggested that Lincoln-Way school be dedicated to our youth and to a renewal of the spirit of better citizenship, respect for Deity and a Supreme Being Whose grace makes and keeps our country great.

During the school program the newly formed band and mixed chorus played and sang, to the great enjoyment of all listeners. Many hearty compliments were heard regarding the beautiful work and coordination of the musical groups, who surpassed fondest hopes after only two months tutoring.

Benediction was by Rev. Dale Kleinschmidt of the Mokena Methodist church. Colors were retired by the Amvet post and then a tour of the school rooms was begun. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria, with special thanks to Webster's dairy for the ice cream and to the Peter Wheat bakery for their donation of cookies and cup cakes.

The afternoon ended with a sustained feeling of sincere friendliness among all who had contributed time, money, effort and prayers to the building which houses the fulfillment of so many dreams.

IN MEMORIAM

GORMAN, S. A. Donald Robert—In loving memory of our son and brother who passed away two years ago Oct. 30.

The sunshine passes and shadows fall
But love's remembrance will outlast all
And tho the years be many or few
They will be filled with memories of you

MOTHER, DAD AND BROTHERS.

The Maue school board and teaching staff held a meeting in the school Wednesday evening. Recommendations for the library, science equipment, school supplies and indoor games were discussed and approved. The scarcity of substitute teachers was also discussed.

Mrs. Roy Walker, Maue PTA health chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Knieriem gave visual tests at the school Thursday, November 10 is the date set for hearing tests at Maue school.

"CAP" MOLTER AT PTA

"Cap" John Molter, naturalist, will entertain with movies and stories of the Isle of Pines, a wilderness spot near Eli, Minn., at the regular monthly meeting of the Maue PTA at the school Wednesday, Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. Cap's color film will show winter and summer scenes, how ice is cut and stored, canoeing, portaging, snowshoeing, etc. Among his interesting films of wild life is one of a domestic dog and a beaver happily playing together. Although Cap has many subjects of an educational nature to talk about, he also tells tales such as the one about the bear that recently went on a rampage, invaded the camp and bit open a can of insecticide.

Barbara Strassenburg was home from school a few days last week ill with the flu.

Flu has really moved into Alpine. Little Donny Kohl is also down with it and his dad sounds like he might be next.

Mrs. Henry Felsch's niece, Joyce Mitchell of Chicago, whose picture along with the story of her struggle with polio appeared in the Thursday edition of the Tribune, continues to show improvement. Latest reports are that she is up and walking, although she still needs the tube in her throat to carry air to her lungs.

Joyce was placed in an iron lung at the Chicago Contagious hospital several weeks ago in a critical condition. When it was learned that she seemed on the road to recovery, one of her Alpine friends remarked, "If all the sick kids in the country had as many prayers said for them as Joyce had, they would all get well."

There was a record turn out of gremlins in Alpine over the week end, and treaters everywhere found it a pleasure to treat such nice little tricksters.

A number of Alpine's residents attended the dedication of the Lincoln-Way school Sunday.

Beginning at noon, Nov. 11, the two cock pheasants that were seen scurrying on 167th st. recently will have something besides personal differences to think about.

Nick Ridlin is a patient in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, where he underwent surgery last week.

Mrs. Nick Ridlin has been ill with the flu the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bean and children, Sandra and Linda, have moved to Marley.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Puniszko entertained at dinner Saturday evening honoring the 65th birthday of Paul Lembke of Mokena. Guests were Mr. Lembke's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lembke and Ann of Mokena; Mrs. Puniszko's brother, Milton Kampikus of Chicago and Miss Louise Olson of Batavia.

Maue's school children enjoyed Halloween parties at the school Friday afternoon. The second and fourth grades were hostesses to the lower grade room. The first and third grades will be hostesses for the Valentine party in February. Money from achievement funds plus supplemental help from parents made the upper grade party a success. Almost everyone was in costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mrosek were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Culp at a Halloween dance in the Moose lodge, Lockport, Friday evening.

Miss Evelyn Giesen of Chicago spent the week end with the Stuart Culp and other friends in Alpine.

Four children were born on 104th ave. and one on 171st during the past year. All were girls. "Cap" John Molter of the Isle of Pines near Eli, Minn., is catching a minute here and there to visit with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Culp.

HOMER

Lockport, R. 1
Telephone Lockport 1387M

The Homer-Lockport Home Bureau unit was entertained in the home of Mrs. Nick Bokan on Wednesday, Oct. 27. Mrs. Gus Terunde and Mrs. Helen Radokovich were the assisting hostesses.

The major lesson on "Laws Pertaining to Women" was given by Mrs. Mildred Marce and Mrs. Olga Anderson.

Word has been received of the marriage of Mrs. Marion White formerly of Homer, to George Diment, formerly of Downers Grove. The couple were married at the Christian Church at Denver, Colo., by the Rev. Mass, and are now living in Denver. Mrs. Harold Tulder of 159th st. is quite ill at Silver Cross hospital, but is improving.

Robert Rollin is the name of the 8 pound, 9 ounce son born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robitaille in Silver Cross hospital on Monday, Oct. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loucks are the grandparents of a girl born to Mr. and Mrs. James Springer in Orlando, Fla., Tuesday, Oct. 26. Mrs. Loucks is in Florida caring for the family. The baby's name is Lu Ann.

George Konow is on a vacation trip in the northwestern states and recently spent two days with Reed L. Burck in Seattle. The two did considerable sight-seeing together in that area.

Guests of the Lockport Women's Society in the Fred Kopleman home Thursday were Mrs. J. T. White, Miss Anna Kreuger, Mrs. Nite White, Mrs. Mary White, Mrs. Brown, all of Lockport, Mrs. Mel J. Canaday of Homer and Mrs. Lauffer of Tinley Park.

Mrs. Frank Parker presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Reed Burch led the devotional program.

Mrs. Parker appointed Miss Myra Reed and Mrs. Robert Burch to represent Homer church on the board of the Lockport Women's Council of Churches. The society voted to send $20 to the Pleasant Hill sanitarium in Tennessee and $10 to Pilgrim Park Camp toward the Swimming Pool fund. Both are Cong. church projects. Also to send letters to Miss Meelod at Truk, Caroline Is., she is the missionary who is sponsored by Aurora Association.

A delicious pot-luck dinner was served by Mrs. Kopleman and Mrs. Henry Rodgers, the assisting hostess.

Donna Ingersoll who is a student at Ill. Wesleyan hospital, spent the week end with her parents, the Harvey Ingersolls.

Mrs. Albert Thomas has been appointed to take the Farm Census in Homer township. Services observing World Community Day, sponsored by the Lockport Council of Churches, of which Homer church is a member, will be held at Lockport Cong. church Friday afternoon, Nov. 5, beginning at 2 p.m. The Rev. Lampe of Great Lakes Training Station will be the guest speaker. Donations of used clothing for children up to 5 years, are requested to be brought to this meeting. Mrs. Paul Cozine and Mrs. Kenneth Yoeman are arranging special music.

Mrs. David Bier and Mrs. Harvey Ingersoll report that they have nearly completed a successful Community Chest drive in Homer township. Assisting them have been the following helpers: Mrs. Mike Roberts, Misses Bonnie Cagwin and Joy Anne Purdy, Mesdames Eugene and Bruce Anderson, Walter Kolar and Scott LeFevres; also Mrs. Walton Smith, Louis Henson, Walter Blaessing, Anton Damaska, John Simmermon, Chas. Adelman, Norman Suellflow, John Zimmer, and George Ballew. The amount will be announced later.

Mrs. F. J. Padock, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Padock and son, Jerry, were Sunday visitors in the Willard Rowley home at Princeton.

Several families in the Reed school district are ill with flu and whooping-cough.

Mrs. Platte, Mrs. Louis Henson, Randall Storm and Jerome Padock attended a Sheep growers' meeting at Urbana Friday, sponsored by the Farm Bureau.

The organ dedication at Homer church last Friday evening was a success both from the inspirational and social standpoint. Reginald Foote, organist, and Mrs. John Hollister, vocalist, outdid themselves, making the evening an extremely pleasant one.

David Murray of Lockport has received word of the death of his brother-in-law, Frank Kreuger, which occurred at Estherville, Iowa, Saturday, Oct. 30. Funeral services were held at Estherville on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Kreuger was the husband of the former Tena Murray, who was a Homer resident during her youth, afterward living in Lockport where she married, and moved to Iowa many years ago. The couple have three children, two daughters and a son and several grandchildren.

The Homer Woman's club will meet in the home of Mrs. Owen Ott on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 10, with Mrs. George Ott as assisting hostess.

A Thanksgiving Fellowship dinner will be held at Homer cañon following the morning service on Sunday, Nov. 14. Mrs. C. G. Rowley and Mrs. Eugene Anderson are planning the dinner.

Names 4-H Winners At Pershing Tues.

The annual achievement night for Will county 4-H clubs will be held at Pershing school Tuesday night, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m.

Of the many awards to be announced at Achievement Night ceremonies will be the outstanding Will county 4-H members, a boy and a girl, who will receive the publisher's award. The winners will receive gold watches from John F. Lux, publisher of the Joliet Herald-News. The award will be made on the basis of their records for the past several years of 4-H work in the county. Some of the points considered in naming the winners of the publisher's awards are leadership records, activities in the local, county and state functions, as well as the size and quality of the 4-H club project. Representatives of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois will be on hand to award certificates to those 4-Hers with outstanding projects in rural electrification. Plaques will be presented for "Club of the Year" and "Best Reporter's Scrapbook."

For the first time high ranking 4-H club members in the state will be presented the "key club" award. It is given once and when a member wins this award he becomes a member of the "key club." The award will go to 4-Hers who make the best scores on points in the outstanding members score card when scored for national honors. These members only will be selected as state outstanding members and selections will be made by the state 4-H Club staff. It is intended that this award bridge the gap between the state outstanding and the national award.

Awards will be given in agricultural and home economic 4-H club work based on leadership activities, participation in local, county and state functions, project records and story. First year members will receive certificates of achievement and membership pins for fully completing the 4-H work.

The Federation committee in charge of the program consists of Bill Mechenburg, Mona Guritz, Phyllis Rosen, Roger Chisholm, Carol Smith and Mary Cavanaugh. Bob Noel will be master of ceremonies.

Don Wesoloski, president of the Will County 4-H federation, will welcome a large group of parents and friends of 4-H to the 9th annual achievement program.

GOV. STRATTON PROCLAIMS AID TO BLIND WEEK

William Blaha president of Mokena Lions club today announced that his club will join with the 430 Lions clubs in Illinois in the second annual statewide "Aid to the Blind" drive headed by Harry H. Semrow, state chairman.

Each year the Lions of Illinois join in a drive to raise funds that are used to train guide dogs and masters, and to further the study of Braille for blind students.

President Blaha asked all residents of the area to help his club make this a successful venture according to the Governor's proclamation, which is as:

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the international Association of Lions clubs is dedicated to provide worthy community services throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, the 430 Lions clubs of the State of Illinois have elected to conduct a program of "Aid to the Blind" throughout the State during the month of November; and

WHEREAS, this program with its slogan "Be Thankful You Can See" will give the citizens of Illinois an opportunity to help those less fortunate, the blind; NOW THEREFORE, I, William G. Stratton, Governor of the State of Illinois, do hereby proclaim the week of November 1 to 6 as "Aid To The Blind Week" in the State of Illinois and do urge our citizens to recognize the unselfish service being rendered to our community by the Lions of Illinois and to express their appreciation to the Lions for the work they have done for the blind in past years by supporting their "Aid To The Blind Program."

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of the State of Illinois to be affixed, this first day of November, 1954.

Signed

Questionnaires For Farm Census In Mail

Questionnaires for the 1954 Census of Agriculture are now in the mail and will be in the hands of local farmers within a few days, it was announced today by Field Supervisor Edmond M. Moss.

The farm census questionnaires are being mailed from a central point with the distribution timed so that the report forms will arrive about a week ahead of the date when enumerators will begin the field canvass. The advance mailing is for the purpose of giving farm operators time to consult their records before filling in the answers required by the questionnaires and getting them ready for the census enumerators. This procedure is designed to insure greater accuracy of reporting and to save time both for the farmer and enumerator when the latter calls at the farm.

The 1954 Census of Agriculture questionnaire is designed to provide information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, selected farm facilities and equipment, selected farm expenditures, farm values, and mortgage debt. On the average, each farmer is asked about 100 questions, many of which can be answered by simply checking "yes" or "no."

Lincoln-W Bows To Carl Sandburg 14-0

A 14-0 victory for Coach Devine's Eagles was the outcome of the football clash between the Lincoln-Way Knights and the Carl Sandburg Eagles Friday afternoon. The game was played on the Sandburg field and added a gay spirit to the schools first homecoming activities.

In the first quarter Dave Andersen kicked off to a high-spirited Lincoln-Way, and later Paul Whennen gained 50 yards on a run, putting the Eagles on the Knights' 4 yard line.

As the game went into the second quarter, it was Sandburg's ball. Chuck Berryman scored the first touchdown of the game on a pass from Tom Lonson, placing Coach Devine's squad out in front 6-0.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but Wayne Clayton, Bill Grieve, Tom Lonson, and Dave Vance displayed plenty of hard-hitting, passing and running.

In the first minutes of the fourth quarter, Lee Kramer scored a safety, giving the Eagles a 8-0 lead. Then Captain Tom Lonson added another six points by scoring a touchdown. The final score was 14-0 in Sandburg's favor.

At the half-time various clubs and classes entered colorful floats in the parade on the field and the queen candidates rode around in a convertible. During the evening students at the dance elected Judy Kral homecoming queen. First prize of $10 for the best float went to the Spanish club for its entry entitled "We Got 'em over a barrel." Second prize of $5 went to the Science club for its entry, "Let's Trim Lincoln-Way."

Lincoln-Way Knights Football News

The 1954 football season will come to a close Friday night, Nov. 5, when the Knights will meet the defending conference champions from Reavis.

Since this will be the last game of the season we hope that a large crowd will turn out to see Lincoln-Way in their final 1954 appearance.

L-W Fresh-Soph Wins

Playing in freezing weather, the Junior Knights beat a tough Sandburg J.V. team Saturday morning 13-0. Led by the running of Les Gullicksen, Henry Jensen, and Ron Fredin and the hard charging line of the Junior Knights were able to chalk up two touchdowns in the second half which meant victory.

The Fresh-Soph team now has a season record of two wins and four losses.

Bowling Tips

How to keep score?
Many people say that scoring is the hardest part of the game of bowling. It really isn't hard, especially if you learn the simple basic rules.

You have two balls (or two chances) to knock down ten pins. You mark your total of pins knocked down by both balls, in each of the ten frames (or boxes) on the score sheet. You have ten games for each line or game. The maximum balls or turns at the lanes in a game is 21. The minimum is 12, and all pins knocked down as successive strikes will give the ultimate 300 games, a perfect 300 score.

You keep adding the score in each frame as you go along. There is never a subtraction in score tallying—only additions. Can any game be simpler?

If you knock down all the pins at one time you have a 'strike' and that is scored by adding ten plus all your score on your next two balls. You mark that score underneath your strike and then go on adding each frame as you go along with your game. When you knock down all ten pins with two balls you have a 'spare.' That gives you ten plus what you score on the next ball.

A good habit to form is to write down the number you get on your first ball of each frame in the corner. This is for convenience only, but it will help you go back and check your score and correct any tallying errors.

When a bowler gutters the first ball and then knocks down all ten pins with the second ball, it is properly recorded as a 'spare' and not as a 'strike.'

Chicago Motor Club Winter Driving Tips

Frost on your auto's windshield can obscure your vision and cause accidents, warns the Chicago Motor Club.

Here are three ways to remove frost quickly:

1. Keep a window scraper in the auto glove compartment. It is particularly helpful in clearing frost or snow from windows when the car has been left out overnight.

2. To prevent frost gathering on windshield when the car must be left outside for any time in threatening weather, place a heavy piece of cardboard against the window, and under the wiper blades.

3. You can keep the windshield frost-free in the coldest weather if you use two matchbooks to raise the hood slightly where it closes near the windshield.

The slightly-raised hood (less than 1/4 inch) will allow warm air from the motor to be blown against the glass, keeping it clear even under most difficult conditions.

In Fourteen Hundred and Ninety Two, Columbus sailed the ocean blue, And what eventually met his eyes Occasioned mutual surprise: Tho' Christoph' didn't, the Indians knew Just what the world was coming to!

Cows Need Little Mineral, But Do Need Them Badly

Your milk cows don't need very much mineral, but what they do need is important both for growth and for milk production. L. R. Fryman, University of Illinois dairy specialist, says that salt is the most important mineral. Dairy cattle need free access to either block or loose salt. In addition, milking cows need a pound or two of salt for each 100 pounds of grain mixture, and calves need about a pound for each 100 pounds of grain. If your roughage isn't so good, Fryman says your cattle will also need some calcium and phosphorus. If you have good legume hay or grass silage, don't worry about calcium. But even with good roughage you'll need the phosphorus unless you are feeding a protein supplement. Ground Limestone will supply the calcium, and steamed bone meal will provide the phosphorus. You can offer them free choice with the salt, or you can mix them with the grain mixture.

If you mix them with salt, use a mixture of two parts ground

Farm Economist Sees Gain From Storing Corn On Farms

A University of Illinois farm economist said this week that he "expects the price of corn to go up in the 1954-55 marketing season to make storage on the farm moderately attractive to Illinois farmers."

In a special report prepared for Prairie Farmer magazine, L. J. Norton of the University's College of Agriculture said a special study of corn price trends showed that during the 15-year period from 1938 to 1951 the average increase in the farm price of corn was 13.5 cents a bushel for the period from Nov. to May. On most farms the storage cost during this same period amounted to around 13.2 cents a bushel.

Here is the corn situation as Norton sees it:

The USDA Sept. 1 corn crop estimate was 2,975 million bushels — about 200 million less than last year. The nation as a whole used up and sold more corn than this last, and there are more hogs and poultry in the picture than there were a year ago. On the other hand, farmers raised 300 million more bushels of oats than last year and 130 million more bushels of barley. The Southwest also has a larger crop of grain sorghums. So the total of all four feed grains is a little larger than it was last year.

Bids now on new corn are about $1.35 a bushel for No. 2 corn with a maximum of 15.5 percent moisture. Corn with a higher moisture content would be discounted on a regular scale. Heavy selling at harvest time may push this price a little lower, but after that the trend should be upward. And Norton thinks the price should increase enough to cover the average cost of farm storage.

These costs include storage space, interest on money tied up, insurance against loss by fire and other hazards, taxes if held after the assessment date, and shrinkage. These costs figure out to a little more than 13 cents a bushel for a six-month storage period.

When you "play the picker" and lose, says a University of Illinois agricultural engineer, it may cost you a finger, hand, arm or life in addition to money.

Most unnecessary damage to farm buildings from wind is due to poor construction, carelessness and lack of upkeep.

BABSON SAYS-

Copyright, 1954, Publishers
Financial Bureau, Inc.

What we need more than anything in this country if we want both peace and prosperity is a better recognition of the Law of Supply and Demand.

Many people have indicated to me in recent months a kind of fatalism about our economic outlook. They seem to feel that prosperity can be maintained only in a war economy. Perhaps this is because it has been so many years since we have prospered without war. A lesson that we will learn from the recession which started in the summer of 1953 is that we can have both peace and prosperity if we will adjust ourselves to the Law of Supply and Demand.

But a lot of research must be done on consumer attitudes, on finding out what makes people buy, on how to create wants and needs, and how to develop appreciably more effective selling. This especially applies to all merchants. These are the ones who determine employment and business. I wish I had a five-dollar bill for every person I have recently heard say that he would buy a new car if only someone would really try to sell him one.

During the peace years from 1929 through 1940, we lost in national output of both goods and services better than $600 billions when measured by 1953 prices. This was about twice what World War II cost us! Our real trouble during those unhappy years was that the buying power of our people failed to keep pace with our productive know-how. For the Law of Supply and Demand to work freely in peacetime, the benefits of new methods must be passed along to the worker in the form of higher wages and to the consumer in the form of lower prices, so that the public will be able to buy the products of our increased capacity. This surely requires spending more money on advertising.

Out of our experiences in two World Wars we have learned that the Law of Supply and Demand, although suspended during wartime, must never be forgotten. We have learned that only by curtailing civilian demand can we meet military needs effectively, and say, as many lives as possible. The trouble comes, however, when we try to return to a peacetime economy without stimulating civilian demand.

Everybody knows that when the demand for anything becomes great, prices go up until production catches up. Remember what electric refrigerators, radios, and TV sets first cost. Look at the current asking price of color TV! When a smart business-man sees his colleagues making money by the fistful, he gets into the act too. Then as more goods are produced and more is spent on advertising, prices start to fall, people go out and buy, and more are employed.

Instead of letting business take this course after World War II, government subsidy and regulation tried to keep business good by holding prices high in the face of declining demand. Pretty soon inflation ballooned our whole price structure. The subsequent recession was in part a process of readjustment to this mistaken attempt to keep prices high.

Whether or not we will have another crash depends on the kind of producers and merchants who make up our economy. The way of economic salvation is to work harder, produce better products at lower cost, and then sell harder than ever before. New markets for new products must be developed. When a market is lost, the sales organization had better find another market rather than appeal to the government.

I forecast that research must be encouraged to keep a concern or a city in a competitively strong position - product research, selling research, and consumer research. Salaries must keep pace with the times. The Law of Supply and Demand will require flexibility and adaptability by all of us. But, if we want both peace and prosperity, we will learn now to live under a free working Law of Supply and Demand. This Law we can no more change than we can change the weather.

Forest Rangers To Crack Down on Those Who Dump Garbage

Forest Preserve District Rangers have been given instructions by William N. Erickson, president of the County Board to crack down on persons who dump garbage and other debris in the forest preserves. He advises arrest and prosecution of violators of the dumping ordinance, which reads:

"No person shall deposit, dump, throw, cast, lay or place, nor cause to be deposited, dumped, thrown, cast, laid or placed any ashes, trash, rubbish, paper, garbage refuse or debris in or upon the property of the Forest Preserve District nor in any water-course, lake, pond, or slough within the said Forest Preserve District."

"Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than $200 for each offense."

President Erickson is aroused by the increasing ruthless depositing of refuse throughout the 40,000 acres of the District, extending from Lake County on the north to the Indiana state line on the south east, bordering for the most part the western extremity of Cook County.

Greatest violators are occupants of new homes in subdivisions bordering the preserves where facilities for adequately disposing of their refuse, are not completed. President Erickson said: "Citizens of Cook County should realize that the Forest Preserve District belongs to them, and that by littering it with refuse they are ruining their own property."

Rangers will warn violators first and cause them to remove any refuse deposited. A second violation will result in arrest. "We must keep our forests clean and green and sanitary," President Erickson said.

State Capital News

Although the Illinois waterfowl shooting season opened Oct. 22, mild weather and a shortage of water in the southern part of the state, particularly in Union county, served to some extent as handicaps to sportsmen.

Director of Conservation, Glen D. Palmer said his department is operating three big pumps in Union county in an effort to accumulate enough water to attract any migrating Canada geese coming that way. Opening of the public shooting area there has been postponed for a few days.

Water is plentiful all along the Illinois river valley, and the department's three permit hunting areas, Woodford county, Rice lake and Anderson lake, should provide good shooting, Palmer said.

Large numbers of ducks and geese are reported in Canada and in states north and west of Illinois, and good flights of migrating waterfowl are expected when colder weather comes.

Heavy rains have delayed the Illinois corn harvest, and only one-third of the crop has been husked, compared to two-thirds at this date last year, according to the state and federal departments of agriculture.

Winter wheat, other fall-sown small grains and farm pastures all are showing the beneficial effect of the rains. Only 13 per cent of the crop correspondents throughout the state now report a shortage of soil moisture.

The Illinois state toll road commission last week agreed to relocate the whole 35-mile stretch of its proposed east-west turnpike through Kane and DeKalb counties to avoid cutting about 50 farms in two.

This change, which will make the projected road run along half-section lines instead of on quarter section lines as originally surveyed, followed a recommendation from the commission's engineers after a conference with a delegation of farm owners from the two counties.

Judge Evan Howell, chairman of the toll road commission, commented that the policy of the commission is always to avoid property dislocation as far as possible.

This east-west turnpike will be one of five projected Illinois toll roads. It will extend 149 miles from Chicago to Rock Island, and will cost an estimated $162,000,000.

A forty-hour work week for all employees at Galesburg State Research Hospital, Peoria State Hospital and the Illinois State Psychopathic Institute, Chicago, will go into effect Dec. 1, 1954, according to Dr. Otto L. Bettag, director of the Department of Public Welfare.

Room 301 are studying about "The Pioneers." They are reading stories about the pioneers in their readers, history and library books. They are studying about modes of transportation of that period. They are making a wall mural of a covered wagon train and smaller individual pictures of pioneer days. They have told and have written stories about this period in the history of our country. They are preparing a dramatization of the story of our state, to be given Thursday, Nov. 4 at an assembly program to which everyone is invited. This is the story of how Illinois came to be; the Indians, the explorers, the pioneers, the soldiers and sailors; all have taken part in the development of our state. Room 400 is working on a play, "Tim Makes a Friend," a dictionary play, to be given as assembly in November. A Halloween party is being planned by the room mothers, Mrs. K. Schmudde and Mrs. G. Keuch.

Cut out friezes are being made by the group in history, telling the story of the explorers. Mike Richardson gave an excellent report on his trip to Washington, D.C. last summer. She showed us many pictures and booklets of the capital city and nearby places of interest. Georgine Keuch entertained room 400 by playing several numbers on her clarinet. Room 400 is having a contest. The two sides are "Eager Beavers", with Georgine Keuch, captain, and the "Busy Bees", captained by Trudy Bride; so far the Eager Beavers are ahead.

Sometime about the middle of November, room 400 plans a trip to Garfield Park to see the Chrysanthemum show, as well as the tropical plants. If time permits, they will also go through China town. The mothers of the boys and girls of room 40 are invited to go and share the expense of the trip.

Room 100 has been organizing a club. They have elected officers as follows: President, Audrey Nielsen; vice president, Bill Zwada; secretary, John Coghill; treasurer, Edward Balet. The name of the club is "The American Citizens." The king and queen of room 100 are David Bormet, and Georgia Kalat. They have also elected student council members, who are Karen Pokorney and Randy Kalat. The alternates are Georgia Kalat and David Bormet.

Firm To Prepare Pictorial Atlas For Ill. Counties

The Loree Company, a Chicago firm, announced that they have recently completed photographing from the air 17 Central Illinois counties which are Vermillion, Champaign, Piatt, De-Witt, Macon, Logan, Tazewell, Case, Mason, Menard, Fulton, McDonough, Adams, Hancock, Pike, Brown and Schuyler. The aerial photographs of the counties which include all farmsteads and communities are for the farm atlas the company will publish in the fall.

This is the first phase of the project in Illinois and the company expects eventually to extend this project to every state in the U.S.

Pilots working for the firm have flown hundreds of hours and have taken thousands of aerial shots from every angle for the past several months, according to the company.

Each county book will include low-altitude aerial photographs showing all farms, rural schools, churches, cemeteries, public buildings and points of interest. And also, it will include high-altitude aerial photographs of each community in the county.

Farms and pictures will be alphabetically listed and printed in the book. Under each picture of a farm will be data giving the owners name, the location and size of the farm.

A staff of specially selected roadmen will obtain information for the picture captions from each farm in the county. The company said 85 employees are at work on the project including four company owned planes.

The atlas is now being sold in a county-wide canvas of farmers.

Any civic, farm and other groups desiring further information regarding the atlas should contact the Loree Company, Chicago.
